PHARMASAVE[®]

Welcome to this fabulous event. It is once again my pleasure to welcome the visiting clubs to the 2012 Kootenay Zone Festival. We all recognize how much effort, expense and sheer love of theatre is involved in taking any show "on the road". We are truly appreciative of your commitment.

Lyn Kaulback,
Zone Festival Chair

A WELCOME MESSAGE FROM MAYOR DAVID RAVEN

Revelstoke is proud to be hosting the Kootenay Drama festival from May 10-13, 2012. On behalf of Council and the City of Revelstoke, I would like to welcome the visiting theatre clubs to our beautiful City. You will find Revelstoke to be warm, friendly, and hospitable, as you experience our community and all we have to offer.

We are sure the productions will be very entertaining and wish the best of luck to each of the competing clubs!

MEET THE ADJUDICATOR AMY BASKIN

Amy Baskin trained at the Central School of Speech and Drama in the UK. She made her leap across the pond for the love of a Kamloops boy! Amy is a freelance director, drama facilitator and currently the President of the Board of Directors for Project X Theatre. Some past projects include: Co-Producing the Opening and Closing Ceremonies for the Western Canada Games 2011 and BC Living Arts: Canadian Cabaret, October 2010. Directing Where the Rivers Meet for Kamloops Indian Band. Also Canadian Cabaret 2009 for BC Living Arts; Rosencrantz & Guildenstern Are Dead for Project X Theatres X Fest; Legend of the Gem for Freedom Theatre; Eight Goals for the British Columbia Council for International Cooperation; and Assistant Director of Seussical: The Musical for Western Canada Theatre.

Theatre BC: Amy served as a dramaturge at the 2009 New Play Festival and again in 2010 as part of the Mainstage Festival in Kamloops.

THANK YOU

Lyn Kaulback, Zone Festival Chair

I also must extend sincere thanks to the zone festival committee volunteers, who contributed so much in planning, fund raising, setting up, and keeping things running smoothly. No event such as this is possible without their behind the scenes dedication. A huge thank you also to Emma Kirkland and the staff of the Powder Springs, for facilitating this event. Having all our events here in one place makes everything much more convenient, and it has been a pleasure to work with you!

Last but never least, thanks as always to our audiences, local and visiting. We couldn't do it without you. I wish you enjoyment of every event of the weekend, and your stay in Revelstoke.

Lyn wishes to acknowledge and thank the dedicated efforts and work of the Zone Festival Planning Committee members
